Forecast for Tuesday 03 May 2022

Weather: Largely cloudy and perhaps rather misty with some fog at first. Cloud bases should readily lift through the morning leaving some brief bright or sunny spells, but also a scattering of showers, perhaps heavy for a time. Showers then fading away during the evening.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 20% until mid-morning (best chances further west) becoming 80% in the afternoon, reducing to 60% by late evening.

Low cloud and visibility: Broken to extensive cloud above 400 metres until late morning, especially on northern and eastern hills, with bases rising to generally above the summits by the afternoon. Some low level mist or fog patches are also possible at first. Patchy cloud with bases down to 400 metres possible returning to some western hills by late in the evening.
